Freedom Credit Union donated $2,000 to The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia during the 98.1 WOGL-FM Loves Our Kids Radiothon which aired on Thursday, September 4th and Friday, September 5th on WOGL-FM from the Ryan Seacrest Foundation's "Seacrest Studios" located in the Colket Atrium at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Donations were taken by phone, online, and in person at the hospital. The two day event raised $681,575.

Freedom remains committed to giving back to the community and strives to help the dedicated employees at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia so that they can continue their mission of saving and improving kids' lives.

About The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia: The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia was founded in 1855 as the nation's first pediatric hospital. Through its long-standing commitment to providing exceptional patient care, training new generations of pediatric healthcare professionals and pioneering major research initiatives, Children's Hospital has fostered many discoveries that have benefited children worldwide. Its pediatric research program is among the largest in the country, ranking third in National Institutes of Health funding. In addition, its unique family-centered care and public service programs have brought the 430-bed hospital recognition as a leading advocate for children and adolescents.
